Games night bingo

CLUB ANALOGUE

Someone disputes the rules	"One more round."	Someone gets suspiciously competitive	A piece goes missing	"That's not how we play it at home."
Someone's never played before. Wins.	The snacks run out first	Someone reads the rules aloud. Slowly.	An alliance forms	"Wait, whose turn is it?"
Someone demands a rematch	Someone's "just watching"	FREE SPACE Be in the room.	Someone keeps score on the back of an envelope	"I'm not even trying."
A house rule nobody's heard of	The 'expert' comes last	Someone accuses the dealer	Someone laughs until they cry	"It's just a game." (It isn't.)
Someone's tea goes cold	Someone reaches for their phone to check the rules	Someone celebrates far too early	Someone's plus-one wins everything	Someone misses their last train

PAPIER

Tick them off as the evening unfolds.
First to bingo wins.